RE: FREEDOM OF INFORMATION LAW
REQUEST: FOIL-2023-056-27451
Re: Crime Incident Numbers

Dear Ms. Walinchus:

This letter is in response to your email dated July 29, 2024, appealing the determination of the Records Access Officer made on July 9, 2024 regarding records requested from the New York City Police Department. Your request, pursuant to the Freedom of Information Law, was originally received by the FOIL unit on November 16, 2023 and subsequently granted in part by the RAO.

This letter is meant to inform you that the appeal has been granted to the extent that it has been remanded back to the Records Access Officer for a further search to be conducted for the requested records. Accordingly, I estimate that a determination will be issued by the RAO within the next 90 business days; this estimate taking into account the volume of documents requested, the time involved in locating the material, and the complexity of the issues involved in determining whether the materials fall within one of the exceptions to disclosure.

Respectfully,

Katherine T. Obanhein, Esq.
Records Access Appeals Officer
